THE NATIONAL CONGRESS.

THE SENATE STILL WRESTLES WITH THE TARIFF BILL.

The House Takes up the Sur and Civil Appropriation Bill and passes the day in Trying to Secure a Quorum.

(By United Press.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 1.—In the Senate to day Mr. Blair offered a resolution (which went over) instructing the committee on rules to report a rule under which the previous question can be ordered.

The tariff bill was then taken up. When "orange mineral" was reached, Mr. Vance offered an amendment reducing the duty to 24 cents. This led to a long discussion about the lead trust, participated in by Messrs. Vest, Morgan and McPherson, in which trusts in general and the lead trust in particular were attacked.

Mr. Vance's amendment was rejected—yeas 21; nays 29.

Mr. Plumb made a violent attack on the bill, charging that especially in the China schedule, it was framed solely with a view to the demands of the manufacturers. It was about time, he said, that the American people had an "inning." The manufacturers had had the present law passed by a Republican Congress on the recommendation of a Republican commission formed with an eye to their advantage, and now they were demanding further advantages. There was a combination, he charged, between the crockery manufacturers and the importers under which they divided the market.

Mr. Sherman defended the crockery manufacturers. He said that the price of China to-day was less than the duty paid on it ten years ago.

Without disposing of the China paragraph the Senate, at 6 p. m., adjourned until 10 o'clock to-morrow.

House. WASHINGTON, Aug. 1.—The House this morning adopted a resolution calling on the Secretary of War for copies of the report of the engineers in charge of the improvement of Galveston harbor. The House resumed consideration of the Senate amendments to the sundry civil appropriation bill.

Mr. Rogers, of Arkansas, was recognized and said he wished to submit a few remarks.

Mr. Cannon, of Illinois, said debate was not in order, and the chair recognized Mr. Cannon to move the previous question.

Mr. Rogers protested, saying this was the second time the Speaker had summarily taken him from the floor after recognition.

The colloquy between the Speaker and Mr. Rogers continued for some minutes. The previous question was ordered finally, but the rest of the afternoon was wasted in trying to get a quorum.

At 3:30 a recess was taken.

THE SEVENTH DISTRICT.

Hon. John S. Henderson Nominated on the First Ballot—Vance, Merrimon and Clark Unanimously Endorsed—The Anonymous Circular Condemned.

(Special to STATE CHRONICLE.)

SALISBURY, N. C., August 1.—The Seventh District Convention renominated Henderson over Leazar on first ballot, by instructed vote of 176 to 123.

Vance, Merrimon and Clark were unanimously endorsed, the district being outspoken in its disapproval of the anti-Clark anonymous circular.

The nomination of Mr. HENDERSON to succeed himself is but a fitting endorsement of his course in Congress, and the expression of appreciation of his steady and faithful service for his people. His course is commendable, and the people of his district have by their action said so. He will be re-elected, of course, and will do good work for his section and for the country at large.

Mr. A. LEAZER, of Iredell, was Mr. HENDERSON's strongest opponent. He was very popular in the race and if he had signed the Alliance demands he would have been nominated. But he could not do this. He was not opposed to the principles they embodied, but he did not believe they would bring about the needed reform, and he was brave enough and honest enough to act up to his convictions, though by so doing he knew he lessened his chances for the Congressional nomination in the district.

It Strikes Conway.

(By United Press.)

NORTH CONWAY, N. H., Aug. 1.—The storm struck North Conway yesterday afternoon. Large trees were torn up by the roots and outbuildings damaged, stock injured and two persons hurt. Nothing like it has been seen here for 30 years.

Why It's Hot.

Do you know why it is so sultry and humidly hot? It is because the earth is so soaked with the recent rains. The ground was hot before the rains fell—so hot that when the water soaked in it turned to something like steam; and now that steam is oozing out and upward. There is reason to expect a cool wave to-day or to-morrow.

The Western North Carolina railroad depot at Morganton, three freight cars, and a great deal of valuable freight were burned day before yesterday. The fire originated in the night in a shanty car form a stove in which the hands had been cooking their meals. It was standing next to the depot. The Herald says that the loss is between $10,000 and $12,000.

GOGE WHITTAKER OUGHT TO SPEAK.

GOVERNOR FOWLE and JUDGE CLARK emphatically deny each and every statement made in the anonymous circular which appears in another column of to-day's CHRONICLE.

Col. A. B. ANDREWS, before leaving for the mountains, publicly denounced it as a pure fabrication.

It is now in order for JUDGE WHITTAKER to speak. The people expect a statement from him and we hope he will make it at once. It is due to the Governor, to JUDGE CLARK, to the people of the entire State and to himself that he make a public statement. If he knows anything to the damage of these gentlemen, let it be stated fully. If he does not, then it is his duty to come out and say so plainly and unequivocally.

Let him Speak.

The New Berne Journal condemns the anonymous circular against JUDGE CLARK.

VANCE ENDORSED.

Orange County Falls Into Line for the Noble Vance.

Register of Deeds—John Laws, of Hillsboro.

Treasurer—D. M. Laws, of Hillsboro.

Surveyor—George Tate, of Hillsboro.

Coroner—Dr. A. C. Jordan, of Little River.

THE SOLDIER'S HOME.

The Work of Two Little Girls in Morehead—Mrs. Jarvis's Letter.

The CHRONICLE is permitted to print the following interesting letter which explains itself:

MOREHEAD CITY, July 29, 1890.

MY DEAR MRS. MOFFITT:—I beg to convey to you, through the courtesy of Mr. Daniels, the sum of $2 (two dollars) to be added to the fund already raised here for the "Soldier's Home." The amount herein named was raised by three little girls, viz: Miss Christina Crawford of Winston, and Misses Carrie and Jessie Wyatt of Raleigh, at a children's concert given by them at Dr. Arendell's comfortable home on last Tuesday night. Three little girls deserve the highest praise for their efforts in behalf of so worthy a cause. Can we not interest the children in this matter in other portions of the State? It seems to me peculiarly touching and appropriate that the children who are coming on to take our places should be encouraged to lend their best efforts of head and heart to an enterprise that must ever appeal to all that is noblest and best within them, as it recalls at once the most pathetic and most tragic episode in all our country's history.

Most cordially yours,

M. W. JARVIS.

Capt. R. O. Edwards Dead.

Weldon was saddened on Wednesday evening, July 30th, at about 8 o'clock, by the announcement that Capt. R. O. Edwards had suddenly died.

While sitting in his chair at home he remarked that he had the headache. A moment or two later he rose from his chair, but before he could reach the door, sank to the floor and died almost instantly.

For many years he has been a prominent citizen of Weldon. He was agent for the Seaboard & Roanoke railroad there.

He leaves a widow and five children. His life was insured, it is said, for ten thousand dollars. He was buried in Franklin, Va., to-day. A large number of Weldon people went down to Franklin.

Capt. Edwards was about forty-two or forty-three years of age.

ENGLAND AND FRANCE

Demand $10,000,000 from the Argentine Republic—For Damage Inflicted on their Citizens.

(By United Press.)

LONDON, Aug. 1.—It is said that England and France have demanded indemnity from the Argentine Republic for property of subjects of those countries to the value of $10,000,000 destroyed by the recent bombardment of Buenos Ayres by the rebellious navy. The combined fleet of England and France, it is stated, are to assemble at Buenos Ayres to support the demand if necessary.

W. H. & R. S. Tucker & Co. can offer to the trade to-day the very best grades of carpets in all the new and desirable patterns and colors, and every piece has been marked to sell at a very moderate profit.

Having given our order for these new arrivals before the advance in the price of the raw material and bought for cash, we are prepared to sell to purchasers now the same grades for less price than can be sold later in the season.

JUDGE MACRAE WITHDRAWS.

Just as we expected—as soon as he learned of the anonymous scurrilous attack upon JUDGE CLARK and the Governor, the upright and able JUDGE MACRAE has stated that he will not be a candidate. The following telegram explains itself:

OXFORD, N. C., Aug. 1, 1890. HON. WALTER CLARK, RALEIGH, N. C. Judge Macrae has just withdrawn in your favor.

ROBT. W. WINSTON.

JUDGE MACRAE had an honorable ambition to be a Justice of the Supreme Court. Many people favor him in preference to any man. But he is too manly, too noble, and too worthy of high honors to in any way profit by a mean attack upon a learned and honest Judge.

Since the above was in type the following letter has been handed us by Col. J. W. Hinsdale. It explains itself:

OXFORD, N. C., August 1st, '90.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE STATE CHRONICLE:

DEAR SIR: Will you please announce to my friends throughout the State that I have determined not to permit my name to be offered to the State convention as a candidate for the office of Associate Justice of the Supreme Court.

I am impelled to this step by the circulation of an anonymous circular reflecting upon the reputation of gentlemen for whom I have a high regard and esteem.

I could never accept preferment secured by the aid of covert and clandestine attack, and I am sure that my friends would have no such assistance in their efforts to put me in a position which is worth nothing unless obtained by pure and honorable means.

I take this opportunity to express my grateful thanks to all those who have so overwhelmed me with messages of confidence, and to assure them that I shall bear with me into the retiring of private life a satisfaction begotten of their esteem.

I regard the members of the Supreme Court, as at present constituted, as well worthy of the confidence of the people of this State.

Yours most truly,

JAS. C. MACRAE.

JUDGE MACRAE is justly regarded by the people of North Carolina not only as one of the best Judges who has ever graced our bench, but as a gentleman of the most scrupulous honor and of the greatest purity of life. He has many friends throughout the entire State who delight to do him honor. These with all other people who know him will say upon the perusal of his letter, "It is just what I expected JUDGE MACRAE to do under the circumstances," and his withdrawal from the candidacy for the position of Associate Justice of the Supreme Court will add largely to the great popularity of this eminent Judge. This letter of JUDGE MACRAE will be appreciated by all right feeling men in the State, and will certainly be remembered to his credit in the future.

CLARK ENDORSED.

The Full Text of the Resolutions Denouncing the Cowardly and Slandereous Assault upon Clark.

(Special to STATE CHRONICLE.)

MORGANTON, N. C., July 30.—The following is the resolution adopted at the Judicial convention of the Tenth District to-day. It was passed with an amendment endorsing Vance. It reads:

WHEREAS, The Democrats of the counties of Ashe, Burke, Henderson, Mitchell, Yancey and Caldwell in convention assembled, have instructed in favor of the nomination of Hon. A. S. Merrimon for Chief Justice and of Hon. Walter Clark for Associate Justice, and the delegates from Watauga county were instructed, while those from McDowell were instructed to cast the vote of that county for the nomination of Hon. J. C. Macrae for Associate Justice; and whereas an anonymous circular charging that the elevation of Associate Justice Clark to the Supreme Bench was procured by a corrupt combination, has been sent to several members of this convention through the mails;

Therefore Resolved, That, while this district convention has no power to instruct delegates to the State convention, or in any way to create or modify the legitimate action of any county convention in directing the course to be pursued by its own representatives in the State convention, it is our right and we deem it our duty to denounce, as cowardly, such secret slanderous assaults upon the character of a worthy Christian gentleman and an able and efficient officer, and to express our undiminished confidence in the learning, integrity and personal worth of both Chief Justice Merrimon and Associate Justice Clark.

MORE CYCLONES.

Heavy Bodies Carried Through the Air for a Considerable Distance.

(By United Press.)

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., Aug. 1.—Yesterday afternoon the town of Ossipee and North and Northeast Wakefield were visited by a cyclone. Trees were blown down, barns unroofed, coaches overturned and heavy bodies carried through the air for a considerable distance. Reports from the Lake region say the cyclone was very severe in that section.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 1.—The record of the court of inquiry recently held at Hampton Roads, Va., in the Gillis-Reed case has been received at the navy department. Nothing can be learned of the court's conclusions until the matter is formally passed upon by the Secretary of the navy.

THE GOVERNORS SPEAK.

THEIR OPINION IN THE ELECTION BILL.

Democratic Governors Denounce it—Northern Governors Oppose it. (By United Press.)

BALTIMORE, August 1.—The Sun this morning publishes some replies to a recently addressed circular to the Governors of the various States, requesting their opinions of the Federal election bill now pending in the Senate. The comments of the Democratic Governors, as was to have been expected, are unanimous in condemning the measure.

The Governor of Vermont says there is no need of such legislation as the Lodge bill contemplates in the State of Vermont, and that he has not given the measure sufficient attention to feel warranted in predicting its effect upon elections in other States.

Governor Davis, of Rhode Island, says: "I think the proposed act is an expression of the worst and most unwarrantable partisanship heretofore ventured in Federal legislation within the history of the Union."

Governor Biggs, of Delaware, says: "I condemn it as a measure unequalled for, and not only unconstitutional, but unwise and injudicious."

Governor Hill, of New York, replies by sending a copy of his recent speech at Indianapolis, which he says gives his sentiments.

Governor Taylor, of Tennessee, says: "The bill is an evasive stab at a prosperous South. There is no need in any State for legislation that is designed to promote, murder and riot."

Governor Fleming, of Florida, says: "The passage of the bill would evidence hostility toward the South, at which it is aimed by Northern Republicans."

Governor Jackson, of Maryland, says: "It is an unwise and extremely partisan measure, fraught with much evil to the country generally. It will have a blighting effect, if passed, upon the business interests of the South, hinder and obstruct their development, and revive instead of allaying unfriendly relations between the North and South."

WHITE CAPS IN GREENE COUNTY.

There is Much Excitement and the Investigation Continues.

(Special Cor. of STATE CHRONICLE.)

The investigation of the murder of N. S. Potter is still in progress in Snow Hill, the State being represented by Messrs. John F. Wooten, of Kinston, and T. G. Wooten, of Snow Hill, and the defense by Col. I. A. Sugg, of Greenville, and Messrs. Lindsay and Edwards, of Snow Hill.

The facts that led to the arrest of George Potter, John Jolly and James Carter, as far as ascertained, are as follows: The citizens of Greene in the section of Fountain Hill, near the county line of Pitt, have been much annoyed by the misdoings of notoriously dissolute and unprincipled parties in that community, and several weeks ago notices were served on them, by posting on the doors and other places, that they must leave the neighborhood. No attention being paid to this, some unknown parties raided and unroofed a house in which some of these persons lived causing them to leave.

On the premises of N. S. Potter lived a woman, Mag Joyner by name, of notoriously dissolute habits who was notified to leave. Potter was also notified to move her away, but no attention being paid to this, save by Potter placing fire-arms in the house of this woman, and putting a white man by the name of White to guard the premises at and around the house of the woman, on the night of the 18th unknown parties went to this house caught the man White, and took him and the woman and gave them a dose of tar and feathers and ordered them to leave.

White left but returned since the investigation began. The woman, Mag Joyner, and White both testify to this, and further, that while this was going on Potter came up and was shot by the mob. There is also evidence to show, as testified to by the wife of Potter, that on that night she and her husband had retired, and hearing the report of firearms, her husband arose, dressed, and armed himself, contrary to the entreaties of his wife, and went in the direction of the firing. Reports of firearms were again heard in the direction of Mag Joyner's place of residence, and Potter not returning, his body was found next morning at the house of Mag Joyner completely riddled with buckshot.

The whole matter rests in doubt and mystery. There seems to have been a negro man who was intimate with this woman, who is connected in the raid some way, which causes suspicion to point that way. She is under arrest. The investigation has been going on since Saturday, the 26th of July, with no new developments to date.

Rev. John Moore's Departure.

(Charlotte Chronicle.)

There was a large gathering of relatives and friends from Hopewell and Steel Creek at the R. & D. depot yesterday evening to bid farewell to Rev. Jno. Moore and wife, who left for Japan; Mr. Moore going as a missionary of the Presbyterian church. They went from here to St. Louis, and from there will go to San Francisco, from where they sail on the 12th. Mrs. Moore is the only daughter of Maj. S. W. Reid, of Steel Creek, and Mr. Moore a son of Jno. W. Moore, of Hopewell. The leave-taking was an unusually sad one, as they will be gone for a period of ten years.

FROM WINSTON.

Republican Tactics—Glenn for the Senate—A Raleigh Divine to Succeed Dr. Dixon—Notes.

(Special Cor. STATE CHRONICLE.)

WINSTON, N. C., August 1.—There are many dictators in the political arena in Forsyth this year, and the greatest of them all are two or three Republican members of the Farmers' Alliance. They have been seeking vengeance on the Democratic members ever since that order bounced a Republican county officer. Sheriff Boyer, who had to carry his case to the Supreme court in order to get his deserved seat, is the man to whom their bullets are directed. Time and again have they sought out inventions by which to expel him and thus prepare the way for his defeat in the fall election, but the ground they take is so weak there need be no fear.

These same Republican Alliancemen are endeavoring to enforce the order to put forth a ticket for the endorsement of the Democratic convention, which ticket they will try to dictate.

A great sentiment is being raised in favor of Capt. R. B. Glenn. Stokes county, it is said, will go for him.

A gentleman who knows much about politics in the western counties, says that Tom Settle will be defeated by Barber in every county except Rockingham, and it may be Forsyth. Barber is strong with all classes in the mountain counties, and they will give him a good support.

It is reported that the negroes in Surry county will hold a meeting before the election in which they will decide upon a man for whom to cast their votes for Congress. Two negroes went up to Brower in Mt. Airy lately, and informed him that they could not give him their support any longer, as he had voted against the Blair bill.

There will be a grand ball given in Walnut Cove, Aug. 6th, at the opening of a large tobacco warehouse there. Parties from Mt. Airy, Greensboro, Winston and Piedmont Springs will participate.

Winston will be in full force at the State Tobacco Association which convenes in Morehead City on Aug. 5th. There are more men in the trade here than in any two other places in the State, and large numbers will go down next Monday and Tuesday.

Endorsements and flattering appeals come in almost every day to Grand Master S. H. Smith with reference to the appointment of Dr. Dixon's successor. Considerable interest is being manifested over it here. In to-days Twin-City Daily that paper will come out strongly for a Raleigh divine as the man for the place.

Mrs. P. F. Broadaway, nee Fuller, died suddenly at her home in this city day before yesterday. She was a most estimable lady, devoted to the M. E. church and the W. C. T. U. Her remains were taken to Randolph county yesterday for interment.

The Oxford baseball team telegraphed that they could not come to play our boys as agreed. Next Thursday, Friday and Saturday the "Virginians" of Richmond will play them. Winston will back her boys.

A party of Salem Female College girls started out in wagons yesterday to take a trip over the mountains. They will return after having traversed the Blue Ridge to Asheville.

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL.

Two of the State officials, Col. W. L. Saunders and Auditor Sanderlin, are at Cleveland Springs, and speak in highest terms of their curative powers.—Shelby Aurora.

The Reidsville Weekly says that the people in Reidsville thought Col. Paul B. Means and Judge Whitaker very much alike and called the Col. by the title of "Judge." Who is complimented?

The CHRONICLE is very glad to see that Mr. Abel M. Huitt, who represented Catawba county in the last Legislature, has been renominated by acclamation. This was a deserved endorsement of the faithful and efficient manner in which he represented the county two years ago. We congratulate the Democracy of the banner county of Democracy upon their wisdom. He is a Vance man.

While in Sanford, in attendance on the District conference, we called to see friend St. Clair, of the Central Express, who has been and is still confined to bed with an attack of fever. We were gratified to find him better, and patiently awaiting restoration to strength and labor, for which he pines in the spirit of a genuine editor. We regard him as one of our best editors, with the desirable talent of enthusiasm for his work, and his enforced rest is a real loss to the State press.—Rockingham Rocket. (The CHRONICLE is glad to know that Bro. St. Clair is recovering. "He is the best editor in the State," said a thoughtful citizen to us yesterday.)

In the last House of Representatives one of the most active and useful members was Mr. J. S. Bell, of Clay county. His friends will be glad to know that the Democrats of the 42d Senatorial District have nominated him for a seat in the State Senate. He is a good campaigner and a debater who knows how to land on his feet. In the Legislature he had several bouts with Republicans and every time got the best of them. Referring to his nomination, the Asheville Democrat says: "The Democracy of the 42d Senatorial District have presented a most excellent man to represent the district in the next Senate in the person of Mr. J. S. Bell, of Clay. He was one of the most active and influential members of the last House of Representatives, is a true and tried Democrat, and one of the best campaigners in the State."

POLITICAL GOSSIP.

Col. W. H. H. Cowles declined to sign the Alliance "demands," giving reasons at length.

One R. M. Johnson, colored, a former friend and supporter of Chatham, the colored Congressman from the Second district, is out in a card denouncing him in unmeasured terms. He hits hard and the card will undoubtedly have its effect.—Greensboro Patriot.

Tom Greenlee, a young lawyer of Marion, has dropped over to the Republican party. The Free Lance says it is rumored he is sore-headed because he has never been given office and that he has gone over in expectation of receiving the Republican nomination for the Legislature or for Solicitor.

Dr. Smith says that it was a Brower rain that began falling Thursday morning. There are many Democrats and a few Republicans who are of the opinion that Brower has reigned long enough and would like to have a little drouth if they were certain that it would not injure the political crops.—Reidsville Weekly.

A correspondent of the Fayetteville Observer, referring to the bill introduced by SENATOR VANCE to repeal the tax of ten per cent. on State bank circulation, calls attention to the fact that at the session of the Legislature of 1889, Thos. H. Sutton, Esq., of Cumberland, introduced a resolution memorializing Congress to repeal this tax.

There were two ballots in the Senatorial Convention of the 42d district and three candidates. Mr. J. S. Bell was successful. The first ballot was taken with the following result: Ben Posey, 25; J. S. Bell, 21; A. H. Hayes, 25. No nomination. The second ballot was taken as follows: Ben Posey, 13; J. S. Bell, 40; A. H. Hayes, 18.

It seems that every county in the State is going to endorse Vance. Convention after convention is instructing for him. Indeed when we begin to look over an account of a Democratic convention we expect to see a resolution "endorsing our able and patriotic Senator," just as confidently as we expect to see that the convention adjourned—and we are never disappointed.—Person county Courier.

DR. MACUNE'S CHARGES.

The Democrats Trying to Have Them Investigated.

WASHINGTON, July 31.—The Democrats in the House are at this moment trying to get at the Oates resolution providing for a committee to investigate the charge, editorially made in the National Economist, alleging corruption in the passage of the Silver bill. The Republicans are fighting it. The extract from the editorial that gives Mr. Oates and other Democrats offense reads as follows: "The bond owners are happy. They have won the fight and the bonds they now hold are now payable, principal, interest and premium, in gold only. It would be interesting to know just how many millions it took to force this bill through Congress. Men in these days of corruption and trickery don't change their avowed beliefs and betray their constituents without a consideration. It will now be in order to placate those whom they have so wickedly betrayed."

VANCE'S APPRECIATION.

His Letter to the Chairman of the Mecklenburg County Convention.

WASHINGTON CITY, D. C., July 26th, 1890.

MR. JOHN W. MOORE,

Very respectfully and truly,
